

BOTH WANT THE BABY.

A Smoky New Baby With Two Homes in Sight.—Judge Elliott Perplexed. Through the agency of some inexplicable mishap Smoky Row wandered into probate court and Judge Elliott's attention was occupied yesterday afternoon with the case of Nate Williams and Ada Burch. Williams is Ada's father and is endeavoring to get possession of her three-year-old girl because he says his mother is not a fit woman to raise a child. All the parties concerned are colored and all the best talent of Smoky Row were there as witnesses. Divers unseemly and atrocious things are charged on both sides and the evidence waxed warm frequently. Ada is a much married—three times—young woman with a fairly open countenance and an unconquerable desire for the ardent which she says is inherited.

The case was an intricate one and after a great deal of filibustering Judge Elliott decided to continue the case till next Monday morning in order to allow the evidence to soak in.
